

Fauna Project e-Launch

You're invited!

Event: Fauna Project e-Launch hosted by the Bushcare Network

When: Wednesday 26th February, 2020

Time: Talks start at 6pm followed by a light supper and meeting (optional)

Where: Mid Mountains Community Centre, Lawson

Introduction: Tanya Mein

Talk 1: Anne Carey from Applied Ecology will be presenting....

the Blue Mountains Fauna Inventory which lists all the species and where they are likely to be found based on past records which can be downloaded from the Council's website.

<https://www.bmcc.nsw.gov.au/bushland-management/native-animals>

Talk 2: Frog Conservation Science Citizen project - Alex Callen (Uni Of Newcastle)

The Blue Mountains Fauna Project is an initiative of the Blue Mountains Bushcare Network, supported by Blue Mountains City Council's Bushcare program and Greater Sydney Local Land Services through funding from the Australian Government's National Landcare program.

RSVP essential www.bushcarebluemountains.org.au/events or contact Bushcare on 4780 5623 or bushcare@bmcc.nsw.gov.au